Conifer Revenue Cycle Solutions Names Business Development Leader

DALLAS – Conifer Revenue Cycle Solutions, Inc. has announced that Mike Thatcher has been named Vice President, Business Development. Mr. Thatcher will serve as a member of the company’s executive leadership team and will be responsible for leading Conifer’s sales and marketing departments.

“We are very happy to have Mike leading the Conifer team that is charged with connecting hospitals and healthcare systems with our solutions,” says Conifer Revenue Cycle Solutions President Stephen M. Mooney. “Mike has extensive knowledge of hospitals and the issues they face from his many years of experience structuring and selling both IT and Revenue Cycle outsourcing solutions. I know he will do a tremendous job helping our clients and driving Conifer’s growth for years to come.”

Mr. Thatcher most recently served as a business acquirer and investor with THR Holdings and previously served as National Sales and Marketing Director for PHNS, Inc., a healthcare technology and business process solutions company. Before that, he held leadership positions with Perot Systems, McKesson Corp., and EDS Corp. Mr. Thatcher recently retired as a Colonel in the U.S. Army National Guard and holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Texas A&M University.

“Conifer offers unique, comprehensive revenue cycle services, and I’m excited to join such an experienced organization. I truly believe our solutions can help hospitals improve their financial situations – especially in the current economic climate – which in turn can help increase their capacity to deliver quality healthcare,” Mr. Thatcher says.
